“Healthy Kids - Healthy Future”

Dear Friends of D.C.C.A.R.

The Seventy-Fourth Annual State Conference of the District of Columbia Children of the American Revolution will be held on March 11 and 12, 2011 at the Holiday Inn Rosslyn at Key Bridge.

We are proud of the accomplishments of our D.C.C.A.R. members. The state theme for 2010-2011 is “Healthy Kids - Health Future”. These members need your support and encouragement. The State Conference is the Society’s most important event of the year. State officers, state chairman, and society presidents present reports on their activities, new state officers are elected, and awards are presented. The State Society also welcomes many guests from other societies. This year we will be honored to have Ann Taylor Schaeffer, National C.A.R. Senior President in attendance.

We would like to offer everyone our gracious D.C. hospitality and seek your support. Your tax-deductible contribution will help ensure a successful State Conference for our members and guests. All donors will be acknowledged in the State Conference Program. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. The D.C.C.A.R. members and seniors would love to have you attend any or all of the Seventy-Fourth State Conference events.
